SUBJECTS OF EXAMINATION: The examination will consist of a weighted PC-administered test. In order to be eligible for appointment, you must also pass a Qualifying Performance test. You must pass the PC-administered test AND the Qualifying Performance test in order to be considered for appointment. The qualifying performance test will be scheduled at a later time. You will not be called to the performance test unless you have passed the pc-administered test. Your rank on the eligible list will be determined by your score on the pc-administered test only.

PC-ADMINISTERED TEST: You must pass this test in order to be considered for appointment. The test will be administered on a personal computer (PC). Candidates need no prior knowledge of computers in order to take the test. The test uses a simple point-and-click system that is thoroughly explained through an animated instruction program. Candidates will be given a sample test on which to practice before the actual test begins. This test is designed to evaluate knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in such areas as:

1. ALPHABETIZING:

These questions test your ability to file material in alphabetical order.

2. RECORD KEEPING:

These questions evaluate your ability to perform common record keeping tasks. The test consists of two or more “sets” of questions; each set concerning a different problem. Typical record keeping problems might involve the organization or collation of data from several sources; scheduling; maintaining a record system using running balances; or completion of a table summarizing data using totals, subtotals, averages and percents.

3. CLERICAL OPERATIONS WITH LETTERS AND NUMBERS:

These questions test your skills and abilities in clerical operations involving, comparing, checking and counting. The questions require you to follow the specific directions given for each question which may involve alphabetizing, comparing, checking and counting given groups of letters and/or numbers.

QUALIFYING PERFORMANCE TEST: This qualifying (pass/fail) performance test will require you to use a conventional personal computer (PC) with a standard keyboard to perform various clerical tasks using simulated databases. The databases will be of a generic variety; you do not need any present knowledge of these databases in order to do well on the test. When you begin the testing program, you will receive graphic on-screen instructions that tell you how to use the databases and how to take the test. The test will consist of three (3) parts. In Part One, you will be required to add, delete and update various records in a database. In Part Two, you will be required to look up records in a database and write down selected information from the records onto printed forms. In Part Three, the computer will present questions about the information that you wrote down in Part Two. You will enter your answers directly into the PC. Your rating on this test will be based on the amount of data entered and on the accuracy of those entries. Candidates may take this qualifying performance test not more than a total of two (2) times per calendar year for any one or a combination of examinations requiring the test.

CALCULATORS ARE RECOMMENDED: Unless specifically prohibited, candidates are permitted to use QUIET, hand-held, solar- or battery-powered calculators ONLY. Devices with typewriter keyboards, such as cell phones, computers or devices which can be hooked up to a computer, spell-checkers, personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries and any similar devices are PROHIBITED.

ELIGIBLE LISTS: Candidates who meet the qualifications, and pass this examination, will have their names placed on the Eligible List, in the order of final scores, regardless of the date on which they filed or took the test. The names of qualified candidates will remain on the Eligible List for one year. Appeal of ratings will not be allowed, as the opportunity for re-test exists.

RETEST POLICY: Retest for this continuous recruitment examination is permitted after six months.

TERMINATION OF THE PROGRAM: Oneida County Department of Personnel reserves the right to terminate this special recruitment program at any time, and re-establish a program of periodic testing for this title.
