

SUBJECTS OF EXAMINATION: The examination will consist of a rated evaluation of training and experience. In order to be eligible for appointment, you must also pass a Qualifying Performance test. You must pass the rated evaluation of training and experience AND the Qualifying Performance test in order to be considered for appointment. The rated evaluation of training and experience will be administered prior to the qualifying performance test. You will not be called to the performance test unless you have passed the rated evaluation of training and experience. Your rank on the eligible list will be determined by your score on the rated evaluation of training and experience only.

Rated Evaluation of Training and Experience: You will complete a questionnaire that asks for specific information on your information technology education (formal degrees, IT-related training courses, certifications) and experience. You will also be asked to briefly describe a significant achievement in each of the job's areas and to provide the name and contact information for someone who can verify your information. The information you provide about your experience will be rated against the following areas: Computer Programming, Help Desk, User Support, and Business/Systems Analysis.

Qualifying Performance test will be designed evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in such areas as:

1. LOGICAL REASONING AND INTERPRETING INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPUTER-RELATED POSITIONS:

These multiple-choice questions test for ability to reason logically and interpret instructions in a computer-related context. They cover verbal and quantitative reasoning, flowchart interpretation and applying written directions. The verbal and quantitative reasoning questions include logical implications (e.g., if A and B, then C) and relations (e.g., greater than). Knowledge of addition, subtraction, multiplication and division is necessary, but neither mathematical sophistication nor computational speed is needed. The interpreting instructions questions provide the instructions and specific rules for applying them. All the information needed to answer the questions is presented with the questions.

2. USER SUPPORT AND TRAINING:

This simulation exercise requires candidates to assume the role of a staff member in a Help Desk support unit. Candidates will be presented with a user's problem. During the course of handling the problem, candidates will be required to: demonstrate communication skills, apply troubleshooting practices and tools, determine the appropriate level of training needed by the user, and educate the user on the proper use of computers.

3. WORKING EFFECTIVELY WITH OTHERS TO SOLVE JOB-RELATED PROBLEMS:

This simulation exercise requires candidates to assume the role of a staff member in an Information Technology work group who is working with colleagues during a time of change in policy or procedure, in a particular agency. During the exercise, candidates will be required to deal with obstacles within the working environment, which includes peer relations and the demands of handling multiple tasks. Candidates will be required to demonstrate the ability to be flexible, creative and persistent as a team player. They will also need to demonstrate the ability to cooperate, show initiative, and establish positive working relationships with peers and administrators.

CALCULATORS ARE ALLOWED: Unless specifically prohibited, candidates are permitted to use QUIET, hand-held, solar- or battery-powered calculators. Devices with typewriter keyboards, such as computers, spell-checkers, personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries and any similar devices are PROHIBITED.

ELIGIBLE LISTS: Candidates who meet the qualifications, and pass this examination, will have their names placed on the Eligible List, in the order of final scores, regardless of the date on which they filed or took the test. The names of qualified candidates will remain on the Eligible List for one year. Appeal of ratings will not be allowed, as the opportunity for re-test exists.

WAIVER: If a candidate has previously passed a Qualifying Performance test prepared by the New York State Department of Civil Service that is the same test plan as announced, the test may be waived if the current Qualifying Performance test date is within two (2) years of the date of the previously passed Qualifying Performance test. A candidate requesting such a waiver must submit, at time of application, verifiable evidence of passing the Qualifying Performance test, including the name of the New York State Civil Service agency that administered the test and the test date.

RETEST POLICY: Retest for this continuous recruitment examination is permitted after six months.

TERMINATION OF THE PROGRAM: Oneida County Department of Personnel reserves the right to terminate this special recruitment program at any time, and re-establish a program of periodic testing for this title.

TEST GUIDE: The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication "How to take a written test" helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: www.cs.ny.gov/testing/localtestguides.cfm.
